Employment History

Drupal Consultant, Bucknell University, Remote

FEBRUARY 2022 — PRESENT

Bucknell university was looking for a developer to work on a Drupal 9 sub-theme for their Islandora 2.0 website. I worked on creating a sub-theme based on bootstrap theme and implement the provided figma design. I implemented a lot of functionality enhancement like embedding leaf writer JavaScript plugin, enhancements to solr search, add support for multi-lingual, upgrade core and contributed modules. There was a lot of work revolving around groups functionality. I implemented access control around different group roles. I integrated layout builder so that different groups can have different layouts.
